SEMINAR ON CHARITABLE INVESTMENTS

DAYTON, Ohio, September 30, 1983 -- The University of Dayton Office of Planned Giving and the Kettering Medical Center Development Fund are sponsoring a seminar on "Charitable Investment Techniques: The Potential and Strategies" on Thursday, October 20. The seminar will be held at the Engineers Club, 112 E. Monument Avenue, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The seminar will be conducted by Michael P. Clifford, founder and president of Sharity, Inc. He will discuss how a potential donor in partnership with a non-profit institution can significantly enhance his financial situation as well as benefit the non-profit institution. Clifford will point out the techniques and advantages of charitable financial planning.

Clifford is a member of the National Philanthropic Affiliates and a faculty member of the National Institute for Philanthropic Studies.

For more information or registration, call 229-2911. Registration fee is $25 and includes lunch.
