The University of Dayton

News Release

UD THEATRE SEASON OPENS WITH
"THE SCHOOL FOR SCANDAL"

DAYTON, Ohio, October 20, 1983 -- The University of Dayton theatre season begins on October 27 at 8 p.m. with the production of "The School for Scandal" written by Richard Brinsley Sheridan. The Theatre Division of the Department of Performing and Visual Arts presents this restoration comedy of manners where men and women are ruled by the artificiality of social conventions. Sheridan's play is a comic soap opera featuring amusing and frivolous characters caught up in each other's secret affairs.

"The School for Scandal" will be presented October 27, 28, and 29 at 8 p.m. Tickets are available by reservations at the Boll Theatre box office Monday through Friday, 12 noon to 5 p.m. Ticket price is $3.50 for adults and $1.75 for students.
