SOPHOMORE KILLED IN BIKING ACCIDENT

DAYTON, Ohio, November 7, 1983 -- John A. Gallis, 19, a sophomore student in Chemistry, was killed early Saturday morning when he was struck by an automobile while biking on U.S. 40, just outside of Indianapolis, Indiana. John was riding his 10-speed bicycle to Indianapolis to visit his brother. He was killed shortly after midnight.

John Gallis was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Gallis of 898 Walnut Road, Warminster, Pennsylvania 18974. Both his father and brother, Michael, are graduates of the University of Dayton.

John was a resident of The Campus South.

Funeral services are scheduled for Thursday in Warminster, Pennsylvania. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated on Tuesday evening in Immaculate Conception Chapel at 8 p.m. The University community is invited.
