UD THEATRE PRESENTS
"WHERE'S CHARLEY?"

DAYTON, Ohio, January 23, 1984 -- The Theatre Division of the Department of Performing and Visual Arts at the University of Dayton will present "Where's Charley?" on February 3, 4, 5, 9, 10, and 11 in the John F. Kennedy Memorial Union Boll Theatre.

"Where's Charley?" is a musical comedy of love and mistaken identity at a British men's university. Charley and Jack invite their beloveds to visit, but the invitation is accepted only if the girls have a female chaperone for the duration of their stay. When Charley's never-before-seen aunt, the designated chaperone, does not show up, a series of uproarious misunderstandings ensue. The musical, based on George Abbott's book, Charley's Aunt, features a score by Frank Loesser. Theatre Professor Lawrence L. Selka is the director.

All performances are at 8 p.m. except for the Sunday, February 5 matinee, which is at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $1.75 for students. They are available by reservation at the Boll Theatre box office in the Kennedy Union Monday through Friday, noon to 5 p.m., or by calling 229-2545.

For more information on "Where's Charley?", contact Jim Petsche at the Boll Theatre box office, 229-2545; or the Theatre Division, 229-4119.
