DAYTON BACH SOCIETY
TO SING AT VICTORY THEATRE

DAYTON, Ohio, April 18, 1984 -- The Dayton Bach Society will present its last concert of the 1983-1984 season on Saturday, May 5, at 8 p.m. at the Victory Theatre.

University of Dayton Music Division professor Richard Benedum, conductor, has programmed a double-chorus motet by J. S. Bach, "The Spirit Also Helpeth Us;" the rarely performed Three Chansons for unaccompanied chorus by Claude Debussy; a group of English madrigals, and Brahms' Liebeslieder Waltzes, op. 52.

"The lighter music of this concert is appropriate for the spring season, and should make the concert appealing to all," said Benedum. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for students, and will be available at the Victory Theatre Box Office.

The Dayton Bach Society receives support from the Projects Pool of the Dayton Performing Arts Fund and the Ohio Arts Council. Concerts for the 1984-1985 season are planned to celebrate the 300th anniversary of J. S. Bach and G. F. Handel. Music slated to be performed includes Bach's Mass in B Minor, and Handel's Chandos Anthem and The Ways of Zion.
