Phillips Elected UD Board Chairman
PHILIPS ELECTED UD BOARD CHAIRMAN

DAYTON, Ohio, May 18, 1984 -- Dayton industrialist JESSE PHILIPS, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Philips Industries, Incorporated, was elected chairman of the University of Dayton Board of Trustees at its meeting today on the campus. Philips, who will serve a two-year term as chairman, succeeds PETER H. KUNTZ of Dayton in that position.

First elected to the UD Board in 1970, Philips is currently serving his fifth, three-year term. He has served as chairman of the Board's Finance Committee and has helped guide the University's investment policies and strategies during that time.

Philips is a graduate of Oberlin College and the Harvard Business School. His current memberships include: the Dayton Area Progress Council, Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges Board of Directors, Dayton Jewish Community Complex, Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce, Oberlin College Board of Trustees Executive Committee, Sinclair Community College Foundation, Wright State University Foundation, Dayton Art Institute Board of Trustees, Dayton Development Council Board of Directors, Third National Bank Board of Directors, Society Corporation Board of Directors, State of Ohio Department Improvement Task Force Executive Committee, President's Committee for International Youth Exchange, Purdue University President's Council, Cincinnati Opera Association, and the American Music Scholarship Association. He is also a Wellington Cordier Fellow of Columbia University.

HONORARY TRUSTEES

Honorary trustees were named in recognition of their significant contributions of service to the University of Dayton as members of the Board of Trustees.
They are: CHARLES W. DANIS, SR., vice chairman of the board, Danis Industries Corporation, Dayton; PETER H. KUNTZ, vice president/operations, The Peter Kuntz Company, Dayton; REVEREND RAYMOND A. ROESCH, S.M., president emeritus of the University of Dayton; and PERRY B. WYDMAN, senior vice chairman, Society Corporation, Cleveland. Messrs. Danis and Kuntz are each completing three consecutive active terms on the Board of Trustees and are ineligible to continue as Board members. Father Roesch is currently serving as president of Chaminade University of Honolulu, Hawaii. Mr. Wydman has resigned from the Board of Trustees because of his recent relocation from Dayton to Cleveland. The Board gratefully acknowledged the extensive involvement of these members in the University of Dayton and its Board of Trustees.
