DAYTON, Ohio, January 18, 1985 -- William C. Schuerman, Ph.D., was named today to be vice president for student development and dean of students of the University of Dayton, effective July 1, 1985.

Schuerman, 38, is currently assistant vice president and associate dean of student affairs at Georgetown University, Washington, D.C. He was selected from among 70 candidates for this position. A search committee of 15 UD faculty, staff, students, and trustees worked for almost 10 months on the search and candidate evaluations, chaired by Professor Judith P. Allik, Ph.D., of the University's Department of Psychology.

Schuerman has been in the Student Affairs division of Georgetown University since 1971. Prior to that he was housemaster/residence hall director at Michigan State University.

He holds a Ph.D. in Higher Education from the American University in Washington, D.C. (1980), an M.A. in Counseling and College Student Development from Michigan State University (1971), and a B.A. in Medieval History and Classics from the University of Cincinnati (1969).

Schuerman is married and has two children.

Introducing the new vice president, University President Brother Raymond L. Fitz, S.M. said "I am confident Dr. Schuerman will enable us to maintain and extend our strong traditions of excellence and concern for students."

Brother Fitz also expressed his appreciation for the leadership of John E. Riley who has served as acting vice president for the student development since March 1984. "Jack Riley has provided strong and steady leadership in this time of transition. We have made significant progress in many areas with his direction," said Fitz. Riley has worked at UD since 1957.
