VICE PRESIDENT TO LEAVE UD FOR NEW CHALLENGE

DAYTON, Ohio, April 8, 1985 -- M. Daniel Henry, Ph.D., vice president of administration at the University of Dayton, has been named president of St. Leo College in Tampa, Florida, and will assume that position on July 1.

Brother Raymond L. Fitz, S.M., president of UD, expressed his congratulations to Henry, and said "We will miss him, but we are very pleased with the accomplishments that he achieved at our institution. We wish him and his family many blessings in this new challenge."

As vice president Henry is responsible for planning, administration of the University's extensive Unit Review process, institutional studies, and internal auditing. Personnel services, human relations, computing activities, real estate, and legal affairs also report to him. Prior to his appointment as vice president in 1983 Henry served as assistant to the president for planning.

Henry came to UD in 1979 from Barry University in Miami, Florida, where he was professor and vice president for academic affairs. Prior to that he served as associate professor and dean of the college at LaRoche College, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
