DAYTON, Ohio, May 13, 1985 -- The University of Dayton will award the degree of Juris Doctor to 75 men and 55 women at the School of Law commencement exercises Sunday, May 19, at 2 p.m. in the UD Arena. Victor G. Rosenblum, attorney at Law from Chicago, Ill., will be the guest speaker.

There will be a Mass for graduates and their families and friends at 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 18, in the Immaculate Conception Chapel on the UD campus. Following commencement on Sunday, there will be a reception on the terrace of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Union, on campus.

Rosenblum is currently a professor of law and political science at Northwestern University School of Law. He received his A.B. and LL.B. degrees from Columbia University, and in 1953 he received a Ph.D. from the University of California at Berkeley. During his academic career he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Known as a strong opponent of abortion, Rosenblum successfully argued the Hyde Amendment abortion funding cases before the United States Supreme Court in 1980. The former president of Reed College in Portland, Oregon, and Fulbright lecturer at the University of Louvain in Belgium, he has also served as Chairman of the accreditation committee of the Association of American Law Schools.
