5-22-1985

UD Honors Graduates "Top Notch"

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/4588

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
UD HONORS GRADUATES "TOP NOTCH"

DAYTON, Ohio, May 22, 1985 -- Twenty graduates of the 1985 University of Dayton Honors Program were recently awarded various fellowships, assistantships, and scholarships. Of the Honors Program's first three graduating classes, every student who has wished to attend graduate school has won a full assistantship or fellowship.

Honors students winning this year's academic assistance and their prospective schools include the following: Maurice Aufdenheide, University of California, Berkeley, University of Texas, Austin, SUNY at Stony Brook, University of Washington; Lisa Bauermeister, Syracuse University, University of Texas, Austin; Jay Bohn, Cornell Law School, Notre Dame Law School; Robert Davis, University of Michigan, Stanford University, Purdue, University of Illinois; Brian Donahue, M.D./Ph.D. Program, Emory, M.D./Ph.D. Program, Medical School of Wisconsin; Greg Goodhart, Ohio State; Susan Hipp, Ohio State, Lehigh; Peggy Klebba, University of Cincinnati Medical School, Washington University; Tony Magalski, University of Cincinnati Medical School, Washington University; Robert Martz, University of California, Berkeley, University of Minnesota, Harvard University; Patrick McLean, Miami of Ohio, Ohio University, Northern Illinois University; Julie Memering, Princeton, Stanford, Washington University, University of California, Berkeley; Tony Morcos, University of Dayton; Pam Nath, Notre Dame; Mark Polston, University of Chicago Law School, Harvard Law School; Mark Smucker, Fulbright finalist; Rhonda Sorg, University of Kansas; Catherine Stalters, New York University; Mary Jean Walter, Columbia, Brown, California Institute of Technology, SUNY at Stony Brook; Ray Youstra, Purdue, North Carolina State, Indiana University, University of Texas, Austin.

Now in its sixth year, the UD Honors Program consists of special seminars and privileges which demand a rigorous academic commitment from participating students. To graduate in the University Honors Program, students must complete 21 semester hours of honors credit, a thesis in his or her major area of concentration, and maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.5.

This year's Honors Program consisted of 31 graduates. Professor Patrick Palermo is the program's director.