DAYTON, Ohio, September 11, 1985 -- Roger F. Weiss, Associate Professor in the University of Dayton Department of Civil Engineering, died Wednesday, September 11, following an early morning automobile accident. He was 43 years old.

A native of Cincinnati, Weiss received his Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from UD, in 1965. He then became an instructor at UD, while working on his Masters in Engineering, which he received in 1969. He also received a Masters in Business Administration from UD, in 1978.

In 1975 Weiss was named Associate Professor at UD. He was also a faculty advisor for two fraternities, Epsilon Delta Tau and Tau Nu Kappa. Weiss also held a position as Chairman of the UD School of Engineering's Computing Committee, as well as being a member of several others. Weiss was a member of the Miami Valley Regional Planning Commission Technical Advisory Committee, and had recently been working on a project and mini-course in pavement management. He was also a partner in the Shaw, Weiss and DeNaples Engineering Consulting Firm where he was responsible for managing highway and traffic projects for public agencies.

He is survived by his wife, Janet, and four children, Scott, Mark, Diane and Karen. The family has requested that donations be made to the Roger F. Weiss Memorial Fund care of the UD Department of Civil Engineering.

Visitation will be at the Routsong Funeral Home, in Dayton, on Friday, September 13, from 4 - 8 p.m. The Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday, September 14, at 9 a.m. in the Immaculate Conception Chapel on the UD Campus.
