Dayton, Ohio, May 12, 1986 -- The University of Dayton School of Law will award 109 Juris Doctor (J.D.) degrees at commencement exercises on Sunday, May 18. The ceremony will take place at 2 p.m. at the University of Dayton Arena.

Of the 109 graduates, 34 are women and 75 are men. They are alumni of 66 different undergraduate institutions, and ten hold previously earned graduate degrees. The class of 1986 is the tenth to graduate since the UD School of Law reopened in 1974.

One graduate, Karen A. Sussex of Jackson, Michigan, is completing a joint degree program, meeting the requirements for a Master of Business Administration degree in addition to the Juris Doctorate.

Speaking at the graduation ceremonies will be William W. Falsgraf, president of the 350,000-member American Bar Association. The ABA is the largest voluntary professional association in the world. Falsgraf, a partner in a Cleveland law firm, has been an active spokesperson for the legal profession.
