GEORGE ZIMMERMAN HOSTS SUMMER SING-ALONG

DAYTON, Ohio, July 14, 1986 -- The University of Dayton will host a summer sing-along, "An Evening with George Zimmerman," on Sunday, July 20, at 7 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Torch Lounge.

Zimmerman will lead participants in old-time songs, many of which focus on flight and travel in conjunction with this summer's Elderhostel program, "Mind and Flight," at UD from July 20 to July 26. Slides and surprises will accompany old favorites such as "Come Josephine in my Flying Machine" and "In my Merry Oldsmobile."

George Zimmerman is well known for his Christmas and spring sing-alongs at UD. A former supervisor of music for Dayton Public Schools, George has also hosted two television shows, "Passport to Music" on WDTN and "By George" on PBS. This is the third annual summer sing-along, which last year drew a crowd of over 100.

There is no charge for the hour of old-time entertainment. For more information contact University Activities at 229-4114.
