9-5-1984

Top Politicians and Business Leaders to Speak at UD Workshop
DAYTON, Ohio, September 5, 1984 -- Dayton City Commissioner Mark Henry and Senator Richard H. Finan of the 7th Senate District will be among the featured speakers at the Student Organizations and Advisors Workshop at the University of Dayton on September 8. Activities will begin in UD's Kennedy Union Ballroom at 10 a.m. and end at 3:30 p.m.

The purpose of this workshop is to give campus organization members and their faculty advisors an opportunity to improve on the leadership and operation quality of their group. Campus sororities and fraternities as well as other service organizations will participate.

The workshop will be conducted by nine prominent Daytonians and will include Paul R. Woodie, assistant city manager, City of Dayton; Peter Kuntz, vice president - operations, Peter Kuntz Co.; William A. Harrell, vice president of Bank One of Dayton; Robert G. Bayless, president of Capsulated Systems, Inc.; Dr. Jo A. Geiger, national executive director of AIM for the Handicapped; Harry Imboden, executive director of the Downtown Dayton Association; Dale Huffman, columnist and reporter, Dayton Newspapers, Inc., and Robert C. Barr, director of Public Information, Sinclair Community College. A question and answer panel at the end of the workshop will give participants a chance to ask questions of all nine speakers.

A keynote address will be given by Henry entitled "How To Be a Winner Running a Successful Campaign." The address will focus on leadership strategies.

For more information on this workshop, call 229-4114.