NEW ALUMNI RELATIONS DIRECTOR NAMED

DAYTON, Ohio, December 14, 1984 -- The University of Dayton has added a new member to the Office of Development and Alumni Relations. Laramie Vincze, formerly of the University's Office of Financial Aid, is the new director of Alumni Relations/Annual Support Programs. Vincze has been an employee of the University for eight years, the last five as assistant director of Financial Aid. She has also worked with the Office of Admissions for a portion of each year.

Vincze moved to her new position on November 26, 1984. She will work directly with the University's 46,000 alumni, as well as with the National Alumni Association. One of her main goals is "to be more creative in developing alumni activities." Her duties in the Annual Support Programs will include working with all of the University's gift clubs, except for the President's Club. One project she hopes to initiate with the Office of Continuing Education is an Alumni Summer Program which will focus on continuing the education of UD alumni.

The Office of Alumni Relations/Annual Support Programs is new and combines the functions of these two, previously separate areas. Vincze is assisted by Mary Shay, special assistant to the director, and Molly M. Campbell, associate director.

Vincze feels she has "come full circle" in her career at UD. She says, "In Admissions, I helped bring people into the University; in Financial Aid, I helped keep them here; and now I get to see where they have gone."

The Miamisburg resident is the mother of three children ages 13, 9, and 7. Her husband, Stephen, is a 1961 and 1965 graduate of UD. Vincze herself is a 1979 graduate of UD and will receive her M.B.A. from UD on December 15. Says Vincze, "When you become a member of the UD family, it's really hard to cut the apron strings."
