The University of Dayton

MEDIA ADVISORY

The members of the Voyager Crew, Dick Rutan and Jeana Yeager, will be available to talk to the news media during a news conference at the University of Dayton on March 24.

TIME: 10 to 10:20 a.m.
PLACE: St. Mary's Hall 422
PARKING: The main gate campus security officer will advise.

Due to the crew's brief stay in Dayton, this will be the only opportunity for interviews.

Rutan and Yeager are visiting UD to take part in a mini-symposium sponsored by the Dayton-Cincinnati Section of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics. They will be the keynote speakers at the symposium luncheon. There will be limited seating for news media at the presentation portion of the luncheon. Anyone interested should contact Tom Bidwell at 229-3241 by Friday, March 20.

Photography and videotaping will be limited to the first ten minutes of the luncheon when the head table is introduced. (Wright family members and Neil Armstrong are scheduled to attend.) It has been requested by the AIAA and the crew that no photography or videography be allowed during their formal presentation. This request will be honored because of the small size of the room and the low lighting.

If you have any other questions regarding the Voyager Crew's visit to UD, call Tom Bidwell at 229-3241. Thanks in advance for your cooperation.
