DAYTON, Ohio, August 22, 1986 -- The University of Dayton Department of Continuing Education is accepting registration for two fall courses on employee benefit plans: "Life, Health, and Other Group Benefits" and "Social Security, Savings Plans, and Other Retirement Arrangements." The two classes will address the legal, financial, and organizational aspects of benefit plans.

"Life, Health, and Other Group Benefits" begins September 9 and meets Tuesdays from 6 to 8 p.m. through December 16. The instructor will be Donald Polomsky, director of employee relations, Sheffield Measurement.

"Social Security, Savings Plans and Other Retirement Arrangements" begins September 10 and meets on Wednesdays from 6 to 8 p.m. through December 17. Charles J. Mazza, director of compensation and benefits at Mead Corporation, will serve as instructor.

The courses are two of ten offered in the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist (CEBS) curriculum. UD is the local sponsor for the CEBS program, which is coordinated by the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.
