UD SPONSORS PROGRAM
FOR DEAF CATHOLICS

DAYTON, Ohio, September 15, 1986 — MORES Ministry with Handicapped People, an organization at the University of Dayton, is sponsoring a series to teach deaf Catholics more about the celebration of the Mass. The program begins September 21 and will be held monthly through December in the Alumni Hall Chapel on UD's campus.

Father Richard Dooley, a priest for the deaf and pastor of St. Mary's Church in Richmond, Indiana, will use signed videotapes to explain the Mass and what it means for Catholics. In addition, he will celebrate Mass at each session.

The September 21 session will be from 3 to 5 p.m. and will focus on the beginning of the Mass, including the Sign of the Cross, the Gloria, and the Opening Prayer. The second session, on October 19 from 3 to 5 p.m., will center on the Bible readings and the Alleluia. The third session will be on November 16 from 2 to 4 p.m. and will discuss the Bread and Wine, the "Holy, Holy," and the response of "Amen." The final session will be on December 14 from 2 to 4 p.m. and will include the Lord's Prayer, the Sign of the Peace, the "Lamb of God," and Communion.

Those attending may donate $1 at each session to help pay for refreshments. For more information contact Mary Paradiso at 222-7921 (TTY).
