HORN RECITAL TO BE HELD AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio, October 15, 1986--Richard Chenoweth, professor of horn at the University of Dayton, will give a horn recital at 8 p.m. Tuesday, October 28, in Kennedy Union Boll Theatre on the UD campus.

Chenoweth, who is co-principal horn with the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra (DPO) and second horn with the Santa Fe Opera, will perform music for the natural (hand) horn as well as music for the modern instrument.

The program, which will include works by Georg Philipp Telemann, Franz Strauss, and Vincent Persichetti, will feature a world premiere of a piece for horn and string quartet by Steve Winteregg, who is tubist with the DPO Brass Quintet and a doctoral candidate in composition at Ohio State University. Winteregg's compositions have won several international contests, including the Horn Society's Composition Contest, and awards from The American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers (ASCAP).

Chenoweth will be assisted in his performance by members of the Dayton Philharmonic, including concertina star Peter Ciaschini, Phillip Magnuson, Nan Shuffle, Melia Watrous, and Joan Seymour. Other assisting artists include Julane Rodgers, on the harpsichord; Donna Loewy, on the piano; and Marianne Chenoweth on the baroque flute.

The concert is free and open to the public. For more information, call UD's Music Division at 229-3936.
