UNITED NATIONS REPRESENTATIVE GIVES UPDATE ON THE PHILIPPINES

DAYTON, Ohio, November 10, 1986--The challenges facing Corazon Aquino, president of the Philippines, will be discussed by Salvador P. Lopez, permanent representative of the Philippines to the United Nations, at a noon luncheon on Thursday, November 20, at the Stouffer's Dayton Plaza Hotel.

The program, "Update on the Philippines: Challenges Facing Mrs. Aquino," is part of the 1986-87 Far East Series sponsored by the University of Dayton's Center for International Studies and the Dayton Council on World Affairs.

Lopez will discuss whether Aquino can work with divergent Filipino groups, how the government can rebuild the economy, and how those and other issues affect the United States.

Having served in the Philippines Diplomatic Service since 1946, Lopez was ambassador to the United States, secretary for foreign affairs, and advisor to former Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos.

The Greater Dayton Area League of Women Voters, Earlham College, and the Philippine American Society of Greater Dayton are co-sponsoring the event.

Reservations are $9 each for sponsors and co-sponsors and $10 each for guests. The deadline for reservations is Tuesday, November 18.
