WOMEN'S HISTORY EVENTS AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio, March 13, 1987--The University of Dayton is the site of two upcoming events in honor of Women's History Month.

On Sunday, March 22, the film When This You See, Remember Me will be shown at 3 p.m. in Wohlleben 218. The film, which is free and open to the public, depicts the life of Gertrude Stein in Paris in the early twentieth century. For more information, contact the Miami Valley Women's History Project at 873-3207.

"How History Propels Women into the Future" is the theme for a conference being held on Saturday, March 28, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Miriam 107. Some of the topics to be addressed include women in the American religious tradition, comparable worth in the workplace, and the portrayal of women in contemporary comic strips.

Coffee and doughnuts, as well as a luncheon, will be provided for conference participants. The conference is free and the public is invited. To register, call 229-4324 by Monday, March 23.
