MILITARY SCIENCE DEPARTMENTS HELP TRAIN STUDENT LEADERS

DAYTON, Ohio, March 30, 1987--The University of Dayton, in cooperation with Wright State University, will host the sixth annual Dayton Leadership Workshop on Wednesday, May 13, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., in UD's Kennedy Union. The day-long workshop for high school students is sponsored by the schools' military science departments.

The workshop is designed to improve the effectiveness of student government officers and will emphasize a case-study approach to leadership. Participants will learn to organize and conduct meetings and will attend sessions on group dynamics and character development.

High school participants in the program are chosen by the principals of their schools. A total of 27 schools will be represented, including Dayton and Dayton-area public and parochial high schools.

UD and Wright State have joint military science departments and work cooperatively on education and community projects.
