UD CHILDREN'S CENTER
ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

DAYTON, Ohio, August 4, 1987--The University of Dayton Children's Center for Young Learners is accepting applications from people in the Dayton community seeking nursery school or day care for their children.

The new center will provide nursery school for children three to five years old, extended day care for two to five year olds, before and after kindergarten care for five and six year olds, and after school care for children between the ages of five and ten.

Opening August 17, the center offers the highest quality care and educational activities based on the age and needs of the individual child. With a total capacity of 125, it will be open year-round from 7:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Fees vary with each program.

Children at the center will participate in group activities, indoor and outdoor play, "story time," and "work time." Nutritional lunches and snacks will be provided. Also featured are a mini-gym, an indoor solarium, and plenty of room outside including playground equipment and a covered porch.

For further information or application forms, contact Joan Slonaker, Director, University of Dayton Children's Center, 300 College Park, Dayton, Ohio 45469 (229-2158).
