UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON HOSTS
DAYTON NEIGHBORHOODS CONFERENCE

DAYTON, Ohio, September 25, 1987--The University of Dayton will host City Links, the third annual conference for Dayton neighborhoods, on Saturday, October 3. The conference, which meets from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Miriam Hall on the UD campus, is presented by the UD Strategies for Responsible Development Office and the Neighborhood Leadership Institute.

City Links provides information for Dayton neighborhood leaders and organizations about issues concerning their neighborhoods. Topics to be discussed include conflict mediation, neighborhood planning, non-profit accounting procedures, media relations, historic preservations, and state housing funds. The conference will also help participants develop new skills, discover support for self-help projects, and establish links to resources.

Conference sponsors include the City of Dayton's Division of Neighborhood Affairs, the Dayton Foundation, Grandview Hospital, Danis Industries, Good Samaritan Hospital, Mead Corporation, Coca Cola, and Henninger, Inc.

Registration for the conference, which is open to the public, costs $5 per person or $10 for a group of three people. The deadline for registration is Thursday, October 1. Call Strategies for Responsible Development at 229-4641 for more information.
