HISTORIAN TO GIVE TALK AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio, November 4, 1987--Norman A. Graebner, Stettinius professor of modern American history at the University of Virginia, will give a talk at the University of Dayton Wednesday, November 11, at 7:30 p.m. in Kennedy Union Boll Theatre. His presentation, "Foreign Affairs and the Constitutional Convention," is sponsored by UD's Department of History.

In addition to his extensive teaching experience, Graebner has written numerous books including Empire on the Pacific, Cold War Diplomacy, and Age of Global Power. He co-authored A History of the United States (in two volumes) and A History of the American People.

His lecture at UD is free and open to the public. A reception with snacks will follow the presentation.

Call the UD History Department at 229-2848 for more information.
