UD TO AWARD HONORARY DEGREE TO FORMER DAY INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE

DAYTON, Ohio, December 9, 1987—Local businessman and civic leader Richard J. Jacob will be awarded an honorary degree at the University of Dayton's winter commencement Saturday, December 19.

"Because of his accomplishments as an executive, his community leadership, his personal integrity, his generous service as a trustee and his enthusiastic support for and challenge to the University to develop a 'Program for Ethics in the Professions,' Richard J. Jacob is receiving an honorary degree," said UD President Brother Raymond L. Fitz, S.M.

An honorary trustee, Jacob served on UD's board of trustees from 1974 to 1983. In September, Jacob retired from DAY International (formerly Dayco Corporation) as the chairman of the board and chief executive officer. He is currently a partner in Jacob-Dourlet & Associates Investments. Jacob serves on the boards of directors of M.A. Hanna Company, based in Cleveland; First Federal of Michigan, based in Detroit; and Elder-Beerman Stores, Inc., based in Dayton. He is director emeritus of Bank One Dayton, NA, and Michigan National Corporation.

In addition to serving on the UD Board of Trustees, Jacob has served on the boards of trustees of the Dayton Art Institute, Kettering Memorial Hospital and the National Urban League. He continues to serve on the board of Wright State University and is an honorary trustee of the Children's Medical Center.

He and his wife, Louise, have two children, Arnold and Patricia.
