"Clarence H. White:
The Reverence for Beauty" - An Exhibition of Historical Photographs

Clarence H. White (1871 - 1925), an Ohio native, became one of the pre-eminent figures in the world of photography. His gentle and sensitive photographs show a keen awareness of light and gesture. Accompanying the exhibition is a catalogue with text, chronology and bibliography by Peter Bunnell of Princeton University, one of the foremost historians of photography in America.

An Exhibition of Photography by Marianists

The celebration of Marianist Heritage Week includes this exhibition of photographs by Brother John Lemker, S.M., Father Herbert Kramer, S.M. and Brother Norbert Kramer, S.M., among other noted Marianist photographers. Lemker's prints have been published in the Time-Life Books' Science Series and other magazines and textbooks. Father Kramer, of St. Mary's University, has studied fine arts for 57 years both in the United States and Europe. He is hailed as one of the premiere abstract photographers.

"Places" - An Exhibition of Photographs by Frank Hunter

These black and white photographs are drawn from a larger body of work called "In a Dark Time." The images selected for this show were made throughout southern Ohio and Kentucky in the Ohio River Valley. Hunter's work has been widely exhibited and collected; he has been the recipient of numerous grants and fellowships. Currently, Hunter is an instructor of photography at Georgia State University in Atlanta.
