UD STUDENT NAMED TO NCATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS

DAYTON, Ohio, February 4, 1988—Lisa A. Boggs, daughter of Don and Emma Lee Boggs, 2706 Walford Dr. in Centerville, was named to the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) Board of Examiners.

Boggs was one of seven students nationally selected to evaluate teacher education programs across the country. The Board of Examiners is made up of 240 education personnel, ranging from professors to administrators, who possess outstanding credentials. Those appointed to the NCATE Board of Examiners serve for a three-year term.

Boggs, a 1985 graduate of Centerville High School, is a junior majoring in elementary education at the University of Dayton. She has served on the Ohio Student Education Association at both state and local levels. At the state level, she has served as chairperson-elect and as the state program coordinator. At UD, she is active in the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. Her expected date of graduation is April 1989.
