UD CAMPUS MINISTRY SPONSORS
SAFETY AWARENESS WEEK

The purpose of Safety Awareness Week is to make students aware of the need to be informed about safety issues on campus. "We don't want to scare students. We just want them to be prepared if ever the need arises," said Patricia Trausch, Campus Ministry representative. "We have to realize that we are on an urban campus, and just like any other neighborhood in Dayton, its residents should be aware of safety issues. We are not living in a safe plastic bubble."

As part of the week, G.E.T.T.O. Representatives, the Public Relations Student Society of America and the McGinnis Center will sponsor a Safety Fair on February 25 in room 222 of the Kennedy Union from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. A number of booths will be set up to provide information on self defense, theft-proof housing and other safety issues. A panel discussion with representatives from the Dayton Police Department, Campus Security and crime victims is also scheduled.

In addition, members of G.E.T.T.O. Representatives will be visiting the dormitories during the week to raise awareness among student residents about safety.

For more information about the week, call the UD Campus Ministry at 229-3339.
