UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON STUDENTS
PLAN ELECTION ACTIVITIES

DAYTON, Ohio, October 6, 1988—The month leading to the Nov. 8 general election will be filled with campaign-related activities at the University of Dayton. Several campus groups will be sponsoring events tied to the election.

On Saturday, Oct. 8 the United States Student Association (USSA) Bus Tour will come to UD to meet with student delegations from area high schools and colleges. Activities from 1 to 5 p.m. will focus on increasing student voter participation and addressing education and economic issues. Afternoon workshops for college students will be held on the importance of the political process and economic opportunities, and a workshop on financing a college education will be offered for high school students. Voter registration will be conducted throughout the afternoon.

The bus tour will stop at Welcome Stadium at 1 p.m. for a short rally, then travel to the Kennedy Union Plaza at approximately 1:20 p.m. Brother Raymond L. Fitz, S.M., president of UD, will give a welcoming address at 1:30 p.m., followed by short presentations from local political candidates. Workshop sessions will be held at 3 and 4 p.m., and closing remarks will be offered at 5 p.m.

Additional election activities during the next month will include a mock election on Oct. 11, a panel discussion on moral issues in the election on Oct. 17, a student debate on Oct. 24, nightly forums on campaign issues from Oct. 31 to Nov. 3 and an election watch party on Nov. 8.
