FALL RENEWAL WEEKEND SLATED AT GRAILVILLE

DAYTON, Ohio, October 12, 1988--A Fall Renewal Weekend will be held at Grailville Conference Center Oct. 21-23, led by Conrad E. L'Heureux, professor of religious studies at the University of Dayton.

Grailville Conference Center is located on 360 acres near Loveland. The center is 30 minutes northeast of Cincinnati and 45 minutes from Dayton. Cost for the Fall Renewal Weekend, including meals and a shared double room, is $120.

Personal renewal will be the focus of the weekend. "We will work experientially with myth, story and the imagination, learning to accept and integrate all the various parts of ourselves," said L'Heureux. "Letting go of fear and anxiety, we can support one another as we each move along on our unique path. Your growing sense of wholeness will be enhanced by the fresh air, the natural beauty of Grailville and wholesome meals."

The weekend will begin at 7 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 21, with activities slated through 2 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 23.

L'Heureux has a doctorate in ancient religions from Harvard University as well as a master's degree in counseling and training in Gestalt therapy and humanistic psychology. He is the author of three books, including "Life Journey and the Old Testament."
