CIA LECTURE SERIES AT UD CONTINUES WITH PHILIP AGEЕ ADDRESS

Philip Agee, a former Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) officer and author of "Inside the Company," which details the agency's covert operations, will speak at the University of Dayton on Tuesday, Oct. 11 at 8 p.m. in O'Leary Auditorium in Miriam Hall. Agee's autobiography, "On the Run," was published in 1987. As a CIA officer, he served in Ecuador, Uruguay and Mexico.

Agee's address is the third speech in a lecture series designed to spark campus-wide dialogue on the issue of CIA recruitment. His presentation is free and open to the public. Before his presentation, he will be available for media interviews from 7 to 7:30 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Art Gallery.

UD STUDENTS WILL VOTE IN MOCK ELECTION

A mock election will be held at the University of Dayton on Tuesday, Oct. 11 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., sponsored by the Student Government Association. The ballots will include the presidential race, Metzenbaum vs. Voinovich, Hall vs. Crutcher, and a number of county races.

The ballots will request demographic information so that results can be interpreted by sex, age and region. Results may be available by 5 p.m. For more information, call UD's Student Government Association at 229-4444.

UD'S WELLNESS PROGRAM OFFERS SESSION ON PRAYER AS A RELAXATION TECHNIQUE

As part of an ongoing program of "wellness" offerings for University of Dayton faculty, staff and students, noon-time sessions on "Prayer and Stress" will be held for those "too harried for prayer" on Tuesday, Oct. 11 and Wednesday, Oct. 12 in St. Mary's Hall, Room 422.

Led by the Rev. Gene Contadino, S.M., the presentation will include relaxation techniques that will help participants "slow life down so that prayer is not something we run past." Sessions run from noon until 12:50 p.m. For more information, call Father Gene Contadino at 229-4241.

FRATERNITY STAGES "SWING-A-THON" TO PROMOTE READING

Epsilon Delta Upsilon, a professional co-educational fraternity, will hold a Swing-a-thon on Friday, Oct. 14 from 3 p.m. to midnight at UD's Children's Center for Young Learners (corner of Alberta and Stewart Streets). Proceeds will benefit Reading is Fundamental (RIF), a national, nonprofit organization dedicated to the promotion of reading. Since its 1966 founding, RIF projects have allowed U.S. children to choose and own 85 million books.

Fraternity members will be accepting pledges during the event. For additional information, call Julie Treon at 229-5340.
