

10-20-1988

Feature leads and media tips: presidential debate, blood pressure testing, video premiere, CIA lecture, invention exhibit, haunted house

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"Feature leads and media tips: presidential debate, blood pressure testing, video premiere, CIA lecture, invention exhibit, haunted house" (1988). News Releases. 5086.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/5086

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

featuring UD

Story ideas for print and broadcast media

Oct. 20, 1988

UD STUDENTS TO DEBATE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION ISSUES

Representatives of College Democrats/Students for Dukakis and College Republicans/Students for Bush will face one another in a UD student debate on Monday, Oct. 24 at 7:30 p.m. Location of the debate has been changed to the McGinnis Center auditorium, 301 Lowes St. Four panelists will question three representatives of each party in the debate, which is free and open to the public. For more information, call 229-4444.

FREE BLOOD PRESSURE TESTING OFFERED FOR UD COMMUNITY

University of Dayton students, faculty and staff can have their blood pressure checked free of charge on Wednesday, Oct. 26 from 11:15 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the lobby of Kennedy Union on campus. The session is sponsored by the UD Wellness Program, which each semester offers about 30 different activities to promote preventative health measures. For more information, call 229-4205.

PREMIERE SLATED FOR DISABLED CONSUMERS' NETWORK VIDEO

The premiere of "The Challenge of Independence," a video produced by the University of Dayton's Information Systems Laboratory for the Disabled Consumers' Network, will be held at a reception Wednesday, Oct. 26 from 5 to 7 p.m. at Gem Plaza downtown. The 30-minute video will be shown at 5:45 p.m. An all-volunteer effort, the video was created and written by people with disabilities. For more information, call 435-0988 or 836-0092.

CIA LECTURE SERIES AT UD CONTINUES WITH ARTHUR HULNICK ADDRESS

Arthur S. Hulnick, coordinator for academic affairs for the CIA Public Affairs Office, will speak at the University of Dayton on Thursday, Oct. 27 at 8 p.m. in Boll Theatre in Kennedy Union on campus. The event is free and open to the public. Hulnick has more than 30 years of experience in intelligence work, including seven years in the U.S. Air Force as an intelligence officer. He teaches a graduate course in intelligence at George Washington University. For more information, call 229-2245.

The University of Dayton

7JA(1)

LOCAL INVENTIONS FEATURED IN ONE-DAY EXHIBIT AT UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON

A unique exhibition of between 35 and 40 inventions that originated in the Dayton area will be displayed at the University of Dayton on Saturday, Oct. 29 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Kettering Laboratory Room 232. Organized by Beavercreek inventor John Janning, it is expected to include such Dayton inventions as a gas mask, stepladder, parking meter, black light and many others. The display, which is free and open to the public, is being held in conjunction with an engineering aptitude test for high school students. For more information, call 426-2648.

UD HAUNTED HOUSE WILL PROVIDE 'CHILLS FOR CHARITY'

A swamp, a maze and a graveyard will provide Freddie Krueger with plenty of places to hide in the University of Dayton's Halloween haunted house. "Chills for Charity...A Nightmare at Stuart Hall" will be held on Saturday, Oct. 29 from 8 p.m. to midnight on campus. Open to students, faculty, staff and the public, the event will benefit the Children's Miracle Telethon Network and Children's Medical Center in Dayton. Admission is $2 per person and includes the haunted house, music by the local band "City Code," a costume contest and continuous horror films to evoke the spirit of Halloween. For more information, call 229-4621.