UD PRAYER BREAKFAST WILL HONOR
DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

DAYTON, Ohio, January 5, 1989—A prayer breakfast in recognition of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. will be held at the University of Dayton on Tuesday, Jan. 17 at 7:30 a.m. in the Kennedy Union Ballroom on campus.

The prayer breakfast is open to the public as well as the campus community. Tickets are $2 for UD students and $3 for UD faculty, staff and members of the public. Reservations are due by Friday, Jan. 13 and can be made by calling Tim Spraggins at the Office of Minority Student Affairs at (513) 229-3634.

Featured speaker at the breakfast will be the Rev. George H. Clements, pastor of Holy Angels Church in Chicago. He is the founder and former executive director of the Black Catholic Clergy Caucus, chaplain and founder of the Afro-American Police League, and founder and president of One Church, One Child, a program that seeks black adoptive parents for black children.

In 1977 Clements was honored by the Association of Chicago Priests and presented with the Pope John XXIII Award as the Priest of the Year. He was also the subject of an award-winning movie produced by NBC and titled "The Father Clements Story."

The prayer breakfast is the last in a series of UD events to honor King's memory. A commemorative program, candlelight vigil and Gospel Choir performance are scheduled at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 12.
