1-19-1989

Upcoming: UD Students will Compete for 'Blizzard of Bucks' Windfall; Dayton Ballet Begins Workshop with UD Scholars; UD History Professor Talks About Movement to Reinterpret Nazism

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
"Upcoming: UD Students will Compete for 'Blizzard of Bucks' Windfall; Dayton Ballet Begins Workshop with UD Scholars; UD History Professor Talks About Movement to Reinterpret Nazism" (1989). News Releases. 5165.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/5165
JAN. 19: UD STUDENTS WILL COMPETE FOR 'BLIZZARD OF BUCKS' WINDFALL

In a fun game show format, "Blizzard of Bucks" will offer University of Dayton students a chance to compete for a trip inside a whirlwind machine loaded with money. The lucky contestant will grab as many bills as possible within 45 seconds, and may win up to $500.

"Blizzard of Bucks" will be held on Thursday, Jan. 19 at 8 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Ballroom on campus. The program is expected to last about 90 minutes.

Three groups of four students each will be chosen at random to participate in the first round of entertaining activities, involving such props as balloons, marshmallows and colorful outfits. The winners from each of the groups will then face each other in the Bubble Gum Pie event to determine who gets to step inside the swirling sea of green.

For further information, contact Kevin Kinser at 229-4114.

JAN. 20: DAYTON BALLET BEGINS WORKSHOP WITH UD SCHOLARS

A three-part workshop by the Dayton Ballet for UD's University Scholars will begin at the University of Dayton on Friday, Jan. 20 at 1 p.m. in the Music/Theatre Building on campus. Stuart Sebastian, choreographer of the Dayton Ballet, will present a lecture and demonstration on "Which Comes First -- The Music or the Dance?"

As part of the workshop, students will attend a Dayton Ballet dress rehearsal on Tuesday, Jan. 31 at 2 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Boll Theatre. The final session will be attendance at the UD Arts Series performance by the Dayton Ballet on Tuesday, Jan. 31 at 8 p.m., also in Boll Theatre.

The University Scholars Program provides special curriculum offerings and programming to undergraduates who qualify academically. There are currently more than 1100 University Scholars at UD.

For further information, contact Bonnie Rosenzweig at 229-4615.

JAN. 22: UD HISTORY PROFESSOR TALKS ABOUT MOVEMENT TO REINTERPRET NAZISM

Rebecca Boehling, a modern German historian, will speak on "Revitalizing Nazism and the Holocaust: A New History" at the Temple Israel Brotherhood Brunch Lunch Series on Sunday, Jan. 22 at 10 a.m. Boehling's talk will focus on the problems surrounding a movement to reinterpret Nazism and the Holocaust, what she called "a tendency by some to forget what happened during World War II."

Boehling, an assistant professor of history at the University of Dayton, is teaching a Nazi Germany history course this semester. She has participated in several conferences about the Holocaust.

For interviews, contact Rebecca Boehling at 229-3380. For information about the Brotherhood Brunch Lunch Series, contact Ken Rosenzweig at 229-4617.