UD FACULTY MEMBERS TO EXAMINE PRIMARY, SECONDARY EDUCATION

Three faculty members at the University of Dayton will discuss "Why Are American Students Lagging at the Primary and Secondary Levels" on Friday, Feb. 24 at 3 p.m. in the staff dining room of the Kennedy Union on campus. Members of the panel will be John O. Geiger, professor of teacher education; Ronald M. Katsuyama, associate professor of psychology; and Thomas J. Lasley, associate professor of teacher education.

The session will include brief remarks by the panel members, followed by an informal discussion open to all those attending. For further information, contact Pam Huber at 229-3241.

WEEKEND SERVICES WILL REMEMBER UD STUDENT WHO DIED IN TRAFFIC ACCIDENT

A prayer service and Mass will be offered this weekend at the University of Dayton in remembrance of Gail M. LaPlante, a junior who was killed in a traffic accident on Dec. 17, 1988. Her parents, Dewey and Mathilda LaPlante of Princeton, N.J., will attend both services. The prayer service and Mass have been planned in conjunction with Gail's birthday, Feb. 26.

A prayer service will be held Friday, Feb. 24 at 8 p.m. in the Immaculate Conception Chapel on campus. Songs, scriptures and reminiscences will be offered by UD students in Gail's memory. The regularly scheduled Mass on Saturday, Feb. 25 at 4:30 p.m. in the chapel will also be offered in remembrance of Gail.

For further information, contact UD's Campus Ministry at 229-3339.

UD GAME BALL WILL ARRIVE AT ARENA VIA LONG DISTANCE RUN

For the sixth consecutive year, members of the Sigma Nu fraternity at the University of Dayton will raise money for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation with a "Game Ball Run." Members of the fraternity will leave the Sigma Nu house, 1309 Alberta St., on Thursday, Feb. 23 at about 10 p.m. to begin the relay run to Butler University in Indianapolis, Ind. When they reach the Butler Sigma Nu house, they'll turn around and head back to Dayton in time to present the ball for the UD-Butler basketball game to officials at UD Arena at noon.

Approximately 35 of the 50 fraternity members will take turns running the ball along the 200-mile route. Over the last five years, the UD chapter has raised more than $10,000 for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

For further information, contact Richard Seitz, president of Sigma Nu, at (513) 220-9514.
