PLANE CRASH VICTIMS TO BE REMEMBERED IN UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON MEMORIAL MASS

DAYTON, Ohio, March 8, 1989—A memorial Mass will be celebrated at the University of Dayton on Saturday, March 18 at 4:30 p.m. in remembrance of two UD alumni killed December 21, 1988 when Pan American flight 103 crashed in Lockerbie, Scotland. The Mass will be held in the Immaculate Conception Chapel on campus.

Killed in the plane crash were Michael J. "Denny" Doyle and John Michael Ahern. Following the Mass, a reception will be held at 5:30 p.m. in Kennedy Union room 253 on campus.

Doyle, of Cherry Hill, N.J., worked at Scott Paper Foundation. He graduated from UD in 1980, receiving an accounting degree cum laude. He is survived by his parents, Edward and Rosemary Doyle, his wife Noreen and his daughter Kelly.

A native of Rockville Centre, N.Y., Ahern was a government bond broker in London. He graduated from UD in 1984. He is survived by his parents, Thomas and Barbara Ahern, his sister Bonnie O'Connor and his brother Peter Ahern.

"John was a very special person, loved dearly and cherished by all who knew him," said his sister Bonnie. "We are trying very hard to understand why God took John home to heaven so soon."

Family and friends of Ahern and Doyle have established scholarship funds at UD in their memory. Anyone interested in contributing may contact the University Advancement office at (513) 229-2911.
