ART EXHIBIT WINNERS ON DISPLAY AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio, April 4, 1989--Award-winning pieces by University of Dayton student artists will be on display through April 21 in the Horvath Annual Student Art Show at the UD Rike Center Gallery on campus. Admission to the exhibit, which includes painting, drawing, photography and sculpture, is free and open to the public.

Thomas Strohmaier, director of Strohmaier Design in Cincinnati, served as judge for the exhibit. A former instructor of fine arts at UD, Strohmaier was recognized in the 1988 Regional Design Annual published by "Print" magazine. Student artists submitted a total of 149 pieces for the art show, and 39 were chosen for the exhibit. Seven awards were presented.

The Horvath Award for first place was presented to Raina Bajpai of Dayton. Second place winner was Christopher Schuld of Sidney, and third place was awarded to Tana Nichols of Saginaw, Mich. Honorable mention awards were given to Christopher Santer of Parkersburg, W. Va.; Dave Moser of Wayne, Penn.; Christopher Schuld of Sidney; and Joeliene Schaffer of Cincinnati.

The annual Horvath Award was established at UD by Josephine C. Horvath in remembrance of her husband, Bela, who died in 1973 following a long and distinguished career as an artist. Mrs. Horvath died in 1984, but a committee of UD art students has continued the tradition in memory of the couple.

Gallery hours at the Rike Center for Fine Arts are 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.
