Basketball Run Donations to be Presented in UD Pub; Young Scholars will Study Drama in Saturday Workshop at UD; UD Food Court will be 24-Hour Study Center During Finals Week
Members of Sigma Nu fraternity at the University of Dayton will present $8,375 to the local chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation on Wednesday, April 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Pub on campus. The money was raised through private and corporate donations to the annual Cystic Fibrosis Basketball Run on Feb. 23-25.

The event involved a relay run from UD to the Sigma Nu fraternity house at Butler University and then back to UD Arena on February 25 for the UD-Butler basketball game. Donations far exceeded the $5,000 goal, and brought the six-year total raised by the fraternity to approximately $19,000.

For further information, contact the Sigma Nu house at (513) 220-9514.

APRIL 22: YOUNG SCHOLARS WILL STUDY DRAMA IN SATURDAY WORKSHOP AT UD

Approximately 20 academically talented students from the Dayton Public School System will be attending a workshop session on drama at the University of Dayton on Saturday, April 22 from 10 to 11:45 a.m. in Boll Theatre. The session is the final workshop for the 1988-89 Young Scholars Program at UD.

The students will perform basic acting exercises, explore characterization and learn about backstage techniques such as lighting and sound effects during the session. Lawrence Selka, assistant professor of theatre, and Darrell Anderson, instructor of theatre, will lead the workshop.

Designed for fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth graders, the program brings public school students to campus for academic enrichment classes taught by UD instructors. Topics this year have included computer science, creative writing, radio and television communication and courtroom law. The program is sponsored by UD’s Office of Minority Student Affairs and the Dayton Public School System. For more information, contact Tim Spraggins at (513) 229-3634.

APRIL 23-27: UD FOOD COURT WILL BE 24-HOUR STUDY CENTER DURING FINALS WEEK

University of Dayton students will have a handy study center during final examination week when the Kennedy Union Food Court expands to a 24-hour-a-day schedule from April 23-27. Free coffee will be offered, and the deli, pizza shop, sweet shop and grill will be open for business around the clock.

Tried for the first time last semester, the study center idea quickly caught on with UD students. "By the second night, when word got around, we had a full house and kids were sitting on the floor," said Susan McKenna, operations manager of UD’s Kennedy Union Food Service. "There was no doubt that we would offer it this semester too." She said the peak time for study activity is about 3 a.m., but quite a number of students wander in after the library closes at midnight. Last year, the demand remained steady all through the week, with the final night as crowded as earlier nights.

For further information, contact Susan McKenna at (513) 229-2236.