UD ALUMNI RETURN TO CAMPUS TO RELIVE COLLEGE MEMORIES...

For the first time, alumni of the University of Dayton returning for class reunions will have the opportunity to relive their college days by staying in a campus dormitory, the Virginia W. Kettering Residence Hall. The graduating classes of 1939 and 1964 will reconvene at UD on Friday, May 19 for a weekend of reunion activities.

For more information on the reunion activities, call the alumni relations office at 229-3299 or the public relations office at 229-3241.

...CLASSMATES OF 1939 WILL VISIT THEIR FORMER DORMITORY, ST. JOE'S HALL

When the Class of 1939 takes a tour of the UD campus on Saturday, May 20, one of the highlights will be a look at the renovation of St. Joseph's Hall, one of two dormitories at UD in those days. The group of about 30 classmates will begin the tour at 10:30 a.m., reaching St. Joe's at about 11 a.m.

The Class of 1939 was the first at UD to include women in the ranks from freshman through senior year. Kay Struck, a resident of Kettering, helped to plan the reunion for her classmates. Other women expected to attend include Isabel Sachs Noonan of West Carrollton and Chrisoula Economides Hodgkinson and Florence Siegle Katz of Dayton.

Additional reunion activities on Saturday will include dinner and a reunion program at 7 p.m. in the Virginia W. Kettering Residence Hall Ballroom. At the reunion program, class members will present to UD the largest reunion gift in UD's history. More than $575,000 has been donated by members of the class of 1939 to be used for endowed scholarships at UD.

...UD PRESIDENT BROTHER RAY FITZ WILL WELCOME 1964 CLASSMATES TO CAMPUS

University of Dayton President Raymond L. Fitz, S.M., will be wearing two hats when he welcomes his former classmates at the Class of 1964 reunion. As president of UD, he'll fulfill his official duties by greeting the returning alumni and relating the progress and achievements of UD over the past 25 years. As a fellow classmate, he'll join in some of the activities planned by the reunion committee.

Fitz will attend the opening get-together on Friday, May 19 from 7 to 10 p.m. on the terrace at the Virginia W. Kettering Residence Hall, a box lunch picnic on the lawn outside Kennedy Union on Saturday, May 20 from noon to 2 p.m. (complete with pick-up basketball and volleyball games) and the reunion program at 9 p.m. on Saturday.

Additional activities for the Class of 1964 will include a dance at 10 p.m. on Saturday, May 20 in the Kennedy Union Pub. Returning alumni were asked to name a favorite song or two from their college days, and that music will be featured at the dance.
