FAITH IN ACTION MEETS TO DISCUSS VOLUNTEERISM

DAYTON, Ohio, Sept. 1, 1989--Dee Jividan, director of the Voluntary Action Center of the United Way of the Greater Dayton Area, will speak about volunteerism to Faith in Action, an interfaith fellowship of physically disabled adults, on Sunday, Sept. 10 at the South Park United Methodist Church, Brown Street and Stonemill Road.

The program, scheduled from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., will begin with an "Access Mass," a special religious service with Faith in Action members serving as ushers, servers and readers. The Mass will be followed by a short reception and noon lunch. All participants are asked to bring a brown bag lunch. Beverages will be provided.

"Volunteerism is a way in which we all can respond to the needs of our brothers and sisters," said Cathy Schneider of the University of Dayton's Office for Ministry and Religious Education Services (MORES) Ministry with the Handicapped.
