Computer-Assisted Music Composition Workshop Slated at University of Dayton; UD Marianist Rallies will Feature Offbeat Competitions for Student Teams; 'Supermarket Sense' Lunch-Hour Program will Help Shoppers Find Good Nutrition
JAN. 19: COMPUTER-ASSISTED MUSIC COMPOSITION WORKSHOP SLATED AT UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON

A workshop on using computers to compose music will be held Friday, Jan. 19 from 9 to 11 a.m. at the University of Dayton. The workshop will be conducted by David Borden, leader of the New Mother Mallard Band. It will be held in Room 104 of the Music/Theatre Building on campus for students and interested members of the public. During the workshop, Borden will demonstrate how he uses the computer to compose the multi-layered works for synthesizer featured in the New Mother Mallard Band performances. Borden and the electro-acoustical ensemble will appear as part of "Viva Victoria Festival '90," the Dayton celebration of the renovation of the former Victory Theatre, on Thursday, Jan. 18 at 8 p.m.

For information, contact UD's music division at (513) 229-3936.

JAN. 20: UD MARIANIST RALLIES WILL FEATURE OFFBEAT COMPETITIONS FOR STUDENT TEAMS

The University of Dayton will kick off Marianist Heritage Week activities with an afternoon of offbeat sporting events and team competitions on Saturday, Jan. 20 from 1 to 4 p.m. in the UD Fieldhouse on campus. The rally will feature teams of students competing in fun events, such as a giant ring toss with a volleyball pole as the target, a caterpillar race of linked inner tubes in the swimming pool and a round of "Newcomb Volleyball" that uses two balls in continuous play.

About 17 teams with an average of eight students each are expected to compete. For information, contact Kathy Longhouse at (513) 229-2524.

JAN. 24: 'SUPERMARKET SENSE' LUNCH-HOUR PROGRAM WILL HELP SHOPPERS FIND GOOD NUTRITION

The University of Dayton's Wellness Program will offer a lunch-hour program on "Supermarket Sense" on Wednesday, Jan. 24 from 12:05 to 12:50 p.m. in St. Mary Hall Room 422. Speaker Joyce Karp, Miami Valley Hospital community dietitian, will help participants choose food with the most nutritional value—and less calories, fat, cholesterol and sodium.

For more information, contact Lloyd Laubach, director of the Wellness Program at UD, at (513) 229-4205.
