Dr. E. A. Bachhuber, dean of Marquette University's School of Medicine, will be principal speaker Wednesday when a "Careers in Medicine" night is held at the University of Dayton.

The evening program is being sponsored for high school students in the Dayton area by U.D.'s Ohio Eta chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta, national pre-medical honor society.

A nationally known physician, Dr. Bachhuber will speak on "Careers in Medicine" and then will sit with a panel to answer students' questions. Joining him on the panel will be Dr. Michael Craig, intern at Miami Valley Hospital and recent U.D. graduate; Miss Margaret Carroll, medical technologist at Miami Valley; and Dr. Clem Schneble, dentist.

Also taking part will be Dr. Carl Michaelis, U.D. pre-med adviser, and Richard Reiling, Ohio Eta chapter president.

The program will be at 7:30 p.m. in Room 113, Sherman Hall. Tours of U.D. science labs will follow.

(editor, news directors: Dr. Bachhuber will be available for interview late Wednesday afternoon and evening.)
