DAYTON, Ohio, February 1, 1973 --- A Conference-Workshop on "Affirmative Action Toward Equality for Women in Higher Education," sponsored by the AAUP Ohio Conference Committee on the Status of Women in the Academic Profession, will be held on February 10th at Scot's Inn in Columbus, Ohio, from 9:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.

The conference-workshop will deal with current problems of inequality and strategies for implementing necessary changes in higher education. The program includes several professional women speakers, followed by round table discussions on affirmative action program development and implementation (i.e., consciousness raising, salary, promotion, day care, etc.), reports from the small groups, and summary remarks.

The speakers will include Dr. Ali Fatemi, President, Ohio Conference AAUP; Ms. Margaret Rumbarger, Associate Secretary, National AAUP, speaking on "Affirmative Action Program Development;" and Dr. Grayce M. Sills, Ohio State University, on "Male-Female Relationships--A Systems Perspective." Dr. Glenda Elliot, of Kent State University, will lead the round table discussions.

The cost of the program is $10.00 (includes lunch). There is no charge for students attending the program, unless they want the lunch, in which case there will be a small fee.

Anyone interested in going or desiring further information can call Ms. Ellie Stockum (Chairman of Committee W, UD Chapter) at 229-3410, or Fr. Horst (President of UD's AAUP Chapter) at 229-3411, or write Ms. Jodi Suleiman, room 101 Hamilton Hall, 1645 Neil Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, 43210.
