DAYTON, Ohio, August 27, 1974 -- The freshman class at the University of Dayton includes the recipient of the Marathon Foundation's scholarship to an outstanding minority student. She is Alana Dawn Brice of Washington, Pennsylvania, a 1974 honor graduate of Washington Junior-Senior High School.

Ms. Brice will be a computer science major at UD. Her four year scholarship will cover up to $1,500 per year toward the cost of her education.

The youthful scholar is a member of the National Honor Society Chapter at her school and is listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students. She also attended Western Area Vo-Tech and studied computer science while enrolled at Washington School. Her extracurricular activities included three years as a member of her high school band and choir.

Ms. Brice's parents are deceased. Her guardian is her sister, Mrs. Annetta Louise Burgess of 45 Burton Avenue, Washington, Pennsylvania.

This is the third annual scholarship the Marathon Foundation has awarded to an outstanding minority student. The selection is based on academic achievement, financial need and potential in a chosen field of study. The Marathon Foundation, established in 1953, has awarded grants totaling more than $10 million to community funds, welfare and youth agencies, medical schools and hospitals and the minority program.
