DAYTON, Ohio, September 30, 1974 --- The Ernst and Ernst Public Accounting Firm presented the Accounting Department of the University of Dayton with a $1,000 check, to be used in the department's Restrictive Fund.

The presentation was made at a dinner on September 10, 1974, at the Dayton Country Club. Attending the dinner, and making the presentation, were Earl F. Molloy, Managing Partner, Dayton Office of Ernst and Ernst; John Saada, Partner, Dayton Office of Ernst & Ernst; and Edwin J. Kinney, Partner in Charge of Personnel, North Central District, Cleveland, Ernst & Ernst. William J. Hoben, Dean, School of Business Administration, and Willard C. Clark, Acting Chairman, Department of Accounting were present from the University of Dayton to receive the gift.

Ernst and Ernst specified that they would like the money, which is given on an annual basis, to be placed in the Restrictive Fund of the Accounting Department. The fund, used for faculty development, will help finance travel and registration fees for continuing education courses and seminars.

The Accounting Department at the University of Dayton is pleased to be considered one of the leading departments in the nation to supply graduates for Ernst and Ernst recruitment.
