COMMUNITY FORUM ADDRESSES:
"FAITH IN LOCAL LEADERSHIP"

DAYTON, Ohio, September 25, 1975 --- A special community forum, entitled "Faith in Local Leadership" will follow the visit of Frank Capra as a guest in the University of Dayton's 1975-76 Distinguished Visitors/Speakers Series.

The forum, in the style of a town hall meeting, is scheduled October 7 at 7:30 P.M. in the Old Courthouse Museum. Officials of city, county and federal government, the ombudsman's office, the police department will join representatives of Dayton's six Priority Boards in a panel discussion moderated by Dr. Gerald Kerns, of UD's Political Science department.

Following the panel discussion, the forum will open for a public question and answer dialogue between panelists and the audience.

Panel members include Charles Curran and Michael Schierloh of the City Commission, Martha Mundell of the Ombudsman's office, Wanda Weidman of U.S. Congressman Whalen's office, Tyree Broomfield of the Dayton Police Department, and representatives of the County Commission and the Priority Boards.

Frank Capra, film director and political scientist, is scheduled to be on campus September 29, 30, and October 1, 1975. His appearance is sponsored by the Political Science department, Religion in Life, Student Government and University Activities (see release of 9/17/75).

The Distinguished Visitors/Speakers Series will also present science fiction writer Isaac Asimov on October 22, feminist Germaine Greer on November 2, Congressman Paul McCloskey on January 12, journalist Carl T. Rowan on February 2, and sociologist Fr. Andrew Greeley on March 1.
