DAYTON, Ohio, April 7, 1976 --- Bro. Clement Lambert, who spent the majority of his career at the University of Dayton and Mt. St. John, died April 4 at the Via Coeli Retreat House in Jemez Springs, N.M. He was 66 years old and in his 49th year as a religious.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Bro. Lambert taught at Mt. St. John and edited the UD magazine Apostle of Mary, later called The Marianist, from 1943-54. He taught philosophy from 1954-74 until he became ill, then left to study psychology in Switzerland.

Enthusiastic about raising the intellectual level of the University, Bro. Lambert launched a series of faculty seminars which met periodically for group discussion and mental stimulation.

Friends describe him as a very warm individual who loved to be involved with students, a scholar, and a likeable man who had a keen affection for his friends.

Visitors will be received Thursday, April 8 from 6-8 PM at Queen of the Apostles Chapel, Mt. St. John. Mass will follow at 8 PM. He will be buried Friday morning at 9 AM at Queen of Peace Cemetery.

Two of his brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lambert and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lambert, will be present at the funeral.
