Brother William Busch Dies at the Age of 75

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/6414
DAYTON, Ohio, July 12, 1976 --- Brother William D. Busch, S.M., Treasurer at the University of Dayton for 18 years, died Saturday, July 10 at the age of 75 following a stroke.

Before retiring as University Treasurer in 1968, Brother Busch had been principal of Covington Catholic High School in Kentucky and vice-principal of Trinity High School in Brooklyn, New York and Manager of UD's Bookstore. As a teacher, he served in high schools in Detroit, Cleveland, Hamilton, (O.), Sioux City and Dayton.

In May, Brother Busch celebrated his golden jubilee in the Society of Mary, his the fiftieth anniversary of profession of religious vows.

A graduate of the University of Dayton, Brother Busch held a Master's degree in Educational Administration, Bachelor's degrees in chemistry, mathematics and business administration.

A native of Pittsburgh, he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. John Sommer, Mrs. Rita Wess, and Mrs. John Egan, and a brother, Raymond.

Visitors will be received at Alumni Hall Chapel on UD's Campus, Tuesday, July 13, from 4:30 until 9:00 P.M. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at UD's Immaculate Conception Chapel on Wednesday, July 14, at 10:30 A.M.