DAYTON, Ohio, July 25, 1978 --- Commencement ceremonies Sunday, July 30, at 10:30 a.m., at the UD Arena will see 570 graduates of the University of Dayton receive diplomas certifying their education at that institution.

Among those graduates will be two who are graduating summa cum laude, nine who are graduating magna cum laude, and 17 who are graduating cum laude. One of the cum laude graduates is Trina Marie Fullenkamp of St. Henry, Ohio, who will be continuing a tradition of the Fullenkamp family. Her brothers, Carl, Leonard, Daniel, Albert, John, and Philip have all graduated from UD. She also has two sister-in-laws, Jean Garner Fullenkamp, and Mary Kathryn Gaul Fullenkamp, who are UD graduates.

Other Dayton area honor graduates are Gwen Williamitis Matheny of Kettering who will graduate summa cum laude in general studies; the following who will graduate magna cum laude: Linda Suzanne Lovely of Middletown with a major in elementary education; Tana L. Hogan, formerly of Xenia and now of Honolulu, Hawaii, art education; Lois Virginia Collins of Fairborn, engineering technology; Wanda Lee Burns Fabian, elementary education; Edith O. Jerd, of Brookville, secondary education; Delores Sizemore Engler, art education, Dayton.

Those from Dayton who will be graduating cum laude include: Daniel L. Baker, criminal justice; Michael R. Donahue, general studies; Monica Mary Lupp Caron, secondary education; Sue Ellen Walsh, elementary education; and Vickie Leschansky, accounting.

Cum Laude graduates from the Dayton region include Michael Joseph Dillman of Minster, geology; John E. Mallet of Springfield, industrial and systems engineering; and Gary Louis Lammers of Leipsic, mathematics.
